N° 541/A.I.

A Monsieur le Vice-Gouverneur Général,
Gouverneur du Ruanda-Urundi à USUMBURA.

Copie pour information à Monsieur le Consul
Général de Belgique à NAIROBI.-

Monsieur le Vice-Gouverneur Général,

Comme suite à votre lettre n°22120/3910/2387
du 19 mai 1959, j'ai l'honneur de porter à votre connaissance que les décisions du Tribunal du Kabaka du Buganda à Mengo ne visent que l'expulsion des condamnés hors des limites du royaume du Buganda (Conformément à la Loi du 1.9.1955 dont texte ci-annexé).

Les intéressés ayant la faculté de s'installer dans tous les autres districts de l'Uganda (Toro, Ankole, Busoga, etc...), ils ne seront donc pas rapatriés au Ruanda-Urundi.

Les décisions du Tribunal ne sont communiquées aux Résidents que pour information, en vue de faciliter la surveillance de ces individus au cas où ils rejoindraient de leur propre gré leur chefferie d'origine, à l'expiration de leur peine.

J'ai demandé aux autorités britanniques d'ordonner à l'avoir la transmission de ces documents par l'intermédiaire de l'Attaché Colonial, et de bien vouloir y faire figurer la nature de l'infraction.

Veuillez agréer, Monsieur le Vice-Gouverneur Général, l'assurance de ma considération la plus distinguée.-

L'Attaché Colonial pour l'Est Africain britannique.

Jacques DENIS.

THE REPATRIATION OF UNDESIRABLE FOREIGNERS LAW

(1st September 1955)

Title

1. This law shall be called the Repatriation of undesirable Foreigners Law.

2. Every adult African not being a Buganda and not having been born in Buganda hereinafter called a foreigner moral turpitude for two years or more whether by a Buganda or a Protectorate Court shall on the completion of his sentence be liable to be repatriated to his own district in accordance with the order of the Principal Court :

Provided that no foreigner shall be repatriated under this law who had finished such sentence before the coming into force of this law unless he commits another crime of moral turpitude and is imprisoned for it for any period.

Power of Principal COURT to make order.

3. The Principal Court may make the order of repatriation :

(a) at the time it convicts and sentences the foreigner for the crime; or

(b) during, or at the termination of, or after the termination of the foreigner's sentence of imprisonment : Provided that no order may be made in respect of any foreigner after two years after termination of such sentence of imprisonment unless during or after that two years he commits another crime of moral turpitude and is imprisoned for it for any period.

Arrest

4. (i) Any person who is to be brought the Principal Court for the hearing of proceedings this under this Law may lawfully be arrested with or without warrant at or after the termination of his sentence of imprisonment, in order that he may be brought before the Principal Court and may be held in custody during the hearing of the proceedings, if the Principal Court so deems necessary.

Remand

(ii) A foreigner against whom an order of repatriation has been made at the termination of or after the termination of his sentence may be ordered to be remanded in custody for a period not exceeding one month in order that arrangements for his repatriation may be made in accordance with rules made under this Law.

Method of repatriation

(iii) Rules shall be made under section 7 of this Law to provide for ways and means of repatriation.

Expenditure

5. Expenditure involved in repatriation under this Law shall be borne by the Kabaka's Government.

Offences and penalties

6. Any person who, having been ordered to be repatriated under this Law, remains in or re-enters Buganda shall be guilty of an offence and shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding two years on first occasion and not exceeding five years on each subsequent occasion and in any case shall be repatriated without further order on completion of his sentence.

7. The Omulamuzi with the consent of the Governor may make rules for the better keeping of this Law.-
